
Christmas Outreach Sequence: For Your Review

Meji · 23 June 2026

Two emails per company, a few days apart, both from gurmej@mejixmas.com. Each company sees their own city, venue and theme; the examples below are written out for Birmingham, and Leicester and Wolverhampton swap in their own venue and theme. The sequence stops the moment anyone replies.

- Birmingham: Winter Carnival at the ICC
- Leicester: Winter Carnival at the Empire
- Wolverhampton: Winter Masquerade at the ICB

Nothing sends until you're happy with the wording. Edit anything that doesn't sound like you, same as we did with the corporate copy.

Email 1: three subject lines to test

Option 1

Subject: [First name], Christmas with the team this year?

Hi [First name],

I run Meji's Winter Carnival Christmas nights at the ICC in Birmingham, and I'm reaching out to local companies sorting their team's Christmas do.

We host the whole evening: a three-course meal, live entertainment and dance shows, a fun casino and a DJ. A few hundred guests join us across December, and your team just turns up and enjoys the night.

Tables run from Standard up to VIP, with a range of December dates to pick from. Want me to send them over?

Cheers, Gurmej

Option 2

Subject: [First name], your Birmingham Christmas party sorted

Hi [First name],

Meji puts on the Winter Carnival at the ICC in Birmingham every December, and I look after the companies booking their staff in for the night.

It's all done for you: three-course meal, live entertainment, casino and DJ. You pick a date and a table tier, we handle the rest, and your team gets a proper night out without anyone having to organise it.

Happy to send the dates and table options across if it's useful?

Cheers, Gurmej

Option 3

Subject: [First name], team Christmas night in Birmingham

Hi [First name],

I'm Gurmej from Meji. We run the Winter Carnival at the ICC in Birmingham: a hosted Christmas night with a three-course meal, live entertainment and dance shows, a casino and a DJ.

Companies book a table for their team and we take care of everything on the night. Tiers from Standard to VIP, and a range of December dates to choose from.

If a Christmas do is on your list this year, I'll send the dates over.

Cheers, Gurmej

Follow-up (a few days later, same thread)

Hey [First name], just bringing this back up.

The short version:

- Meji's Winter Carnival at the ICC in Birmingham
- Three-course meal, live entertainment, casino and DJ, fully hosted
- Tables from Standard to VIP, a range of December dates

If Christmas is already sorted, no worries at all. If not, I'll send the dates whenever you're ready.
